TSPL contributes 25 lakhs to Punjab Chief Minister Covid Relief Fund

Mansa, 12 April: As the world struggles with the current global health crisis, Government of India has declared Covid-19 a “notified disaster”. To deal with the sudden crisis central and state government have announced several relief measures to support the citizen in the current testing times. Since the financial burden to manage the current crisis is enormous, Punjab Chief Minister, Captain Amarinder Singh, has setup a dedicated relief fund to meet the impending challenge. Talwandi Sabo Power Limited (TSPL), has donated 25 lakhs to the Punjab Chief Minister Covid Relief Fund.

Mr Vikas Sharma-CEO & Whole Time Director, TSPL said that in this hour of need, Talwandi Sabo Power Limited (TSPL) is committed to support Punjab government and the entire people of the State. He said, TSPL’s contribution to the fund would be a small step in this endeavor to reach out to the under-privileged during this critical period of curfew/lockdown.

Mr Vikas Sharma commended Punjab Government’s efforts under the leadership of Honorable Chief Minister Captain Amarinder Singh to contain Corona Outbreak and applauded CM’s decision to extend the statewide Curfew till May 1st ‘2020. Mr Vikas said, “the lockdown is necessary to save millions of lives from the deadly virus. While it is imperative to break the coronavirus cycle, it is equally important to support and fulfill the daily needs of those who have no means to support themselves.” Mr Sharma has called upon his employees to work towards helping the needy in this difficult time.

CEO said, “Apart from the contribution to the Punjab Chief Minister Covid Relief Fund, Talwandi Sabo Power Limited (TSPL) has also supported District Administration Mansa, District Police Administration-Mansa by supply of Disinfectant, Safety Mask, Surgical Gloves etc. and Grocery distribution to the needy in its fight against the pandemic.”
