Vedanta Limited Jharsuguda Holds Mega Health Camp

Jharsuguda: 20th December 2016

Contributing towards the health and welfare of the community, Vedanta Limited Jharsuguda in association with AMRI hospitals conducted a Mega Health Camp on 20 December 2016 at Satsang Bhavan, Jharsuguda. The camp aimed at providing free and quality medical services to the immediate neighbourhood as well as the peripheral population. The initiative was successful in providing specialized health services under different domains like Neurology, Cardiology, Gastrology and Gynaecology by ten specialized doctors and staff of AMRI Hospitals and VSS Medical College, Bhubaneswar.

Over 500 patients benefitted from the camp which was inaugurated by Mrs. Damyanti Sahu, CDMO Jharsuguda. Speaking on the occasion, she appreciated Vedanta's efforts towards community welfare and expressed her hopes for such camps in the future. The camp began at 9.30 AM and concluded by 4.30 PM.

Some of the major deliverables of the camp were instant lab-testing, ECG and supply of free medicines. The camp was coordinated by CSR Team Vedanta and the team members along with members of Mobile Health Unit, Vedanta worked for the successful conduct of the event

This press release contains “forward-looking statements” - that is, statements related to future, not past, events. In this context, forward-looking statements often address our expected future business and financial performance, and often contain words such as “expects,” “anticipates,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes,” “seeks,” “should” or “will.” Forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that are, to different degrees, uncertain. For us, uncertainties arise from the behaviour of financial and metals markets including the London Metal Exchange, fluctuations in interest and or exchange rates and metal prices; from future integration of acquired businesses; and from numerous other matters of national, regional and global scale, including those of a political, economic, business, competitive or regulatory nature. These uncertainties may cause our actual future results to be materially different that those expressed in our forward-looking statements. We do not undertake to update our forward-looking statements.
